

CITY CENTRE

From Place de la Liberté, follow the tramway tracks along the famous Rue de Siam between cafés, shops and fountains. The end of this pedestrian street is a key spot, a theatre overlooking the military port as well as a springboard to «Recouvrance» historic district.

In the heart of the château of Brest, the National Museum of the French navy is home to a unique heritage which bears witness to the great naval adventure. Outside sections of the visit offer a magnificent scenic view of Brest harbour and city.

National Museum of the French navy
Rue du Château - Brest
02 98 22 12 39
www.musee-marine.fr

October-March :
13.30 > 18.30, closed: Tuesday (except during zone B school holidays).
April-September :
Open daily: 10.00 > 18.30.
Closed in January

1h30 € Adult : €7
Under 26 : free

Line A to Château stop

Watching over the river Penfeld, the 14th century Tanguy tower is now the home of Jim Sévellec's models. Key works of the local artist, these newly restored models allow the visitor to discover the streets of Brest as they were before the wars.

Tanguy Tower
Square Pierre Péron - Brest
02 98 00 80 80
(Mairie de Brest, service Patrimoines) - www.brest.fr

October-March :
14.00 > 18.00, closed: Friday
April-September :
Open daily: 12.00 > 18.00

1h € Free

Line A - Station Recouvrance

Like a Bresto

On Sunday mornings, Laurent (55 years old) fills his basket with the best local produce at the market of Saint-Louis to to make kig ha farz (the northern Finistère traditional dish).

Two steps away...

The museum of Fine Arts walks you through an art journey, from sea paintings to the Pont-Aven School and the Nabis to Anna Quinquaud's sculptures. A true invitation to travel!

Museum of Fine Arts
24 rue Traverse - +33(0)2 98 00 87 96 - www.musee.brest.fr.

Open all year: 10.00 > 12.00 / 14.00 > 18.00
Closed: Monday and Sunday morning and January and public holidays

Tourist Office special rate: €3 instead of €5 (free under 25, job seekers...)

Three steps away...

A lovely green space in the city! This park is a homage to explorers who started from Brest in the 18th century. Breathtaking view of Brest harbour and Naval base from the walkway belvedere.

Jardin des explorateurs
3 rue de La Pointe - Brest

Open all year € Free

NATIONAL BOTANICAL CONSERVATORY

The National Botanical Conservatory: an exquisite garden with wonderful, bountiful, exotic lush nature. Ideal for a family outing, for running or playing. Tropical greenhouses are well worth a visit too.

National Botanical Conservatory
Rampe du Stang-Alar - Brest
+33(0)2 98 02 46 00 - www.cbnbrest.fr

The garden
Open daily: 9.00 > 19.00 (20.00 in the summer).
The greenhouses: spring holidays (zone B) and summer holidays: 14.00 > 17.00.

2h

€ Entry to the garden is free.
Greenhouses: adult €5.50 / reduced rates €4 / free admission for children under 10

Lines 17 & 19 to Route de Quimper stop
Line 3 to Palaren stop

Two steps away...

Enjoy a gourmet time in a natural setting by eating a crêpe... Or several crêpes!

Like a Bresto

Morgane (28 years old) comes here for running. What she loves most: the lapping of the brook and birdsongs. Her favourite season is spring, when magnolias come to bloom.

A stroll on a peninsula...

You could extend your trip by visiting Plougastel-Dooulas and its Museum of Strawberry and Heritage.

- A JOURNEY INTO THE OCEANS -

OCEANOPOLIS

Immerse yourself in the biodiversity of Brittany, roam the warm waters, travel to the ice world, and meet Pukiq, Matchaq and Tangiq, our otters coming from Alaska!

Port de plaisance du Moulin Blanc

Brest - +33(0)2 98 34 40 40 - www.oceanopolis.com

Booking advised

Open: Tuesday to Sunday.
Closed on Mondays except during holidays (all zones).
Closed on 25 December and 1 January.
Closed in January for annual maintenance.

Adult €21.90
Youth €16.50
Child €13.60

Tourist Office special rates:
Adult €18.60 / child & youth: €11.60

Return trip to Océanopolis by bus
€1.60 instead of €3.20 at the Tourist Office only.

Line 3
to Océanopolis stop

Like a Brestoï

Sophie (38 years old) particularly likes the view of Brest harbour from Albert Louppe Bridge. In summer, her children go there for rollerblading while she loves admiring the sunset.

A three-minute walk away...

The Moulin Blanc Marina: the beach, nautical centre, cafés and restaurants will offer you some relaxation

- THE NEW DOWNTOWN -

LES ATELIERS DES CAPUCINS

Les Ateliers des Capucins is a technical and architectural achievement, a great magical place flooded with light, where the keywords are stroll and culture: Multimedia library, shops, restaurants, many activities...

Ateliers des Capucins

Rue de Pontaniou - Brest
www.capucinsbrest.com

Open daily: 10.00 > 00.00
(01.00 on Fridays, Saturdays and the day before a public holiday).

Line A
to Capucins stop

Line C
to Jean Moulin stop

1 day travel ticket €4
One ticket valid for the entire transport network: bus, tramway, airport shuttle and cable car. On Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays, it allows up to 4 people to travel with the same ticket!
On sale at the Tourist Office

Cable car ticket €2
One-day-return ticket on sale at the Tourist Office and the automatic pay station.

The Emperor's Barge

Real gem of the French Navy's history, it is the only ceremonial boat kept in France. Set up on an exceptional platform, it seems to parade in all its glory at the heart of the Ateliers des Capucins.

Free

70.8 by Océanopolis Ocean gallery

Anchored in the Ateliers des Capucins, 70.8 invites you to discover the ocean through the new perspective of technologies and naval innovations. With the exploration of 3 main themes, 70.8 is a true gallery for naval innovations, a unique space to live a playful and educational experience on the naval world of tomorrow.

Open: Tuesday to Sunday
Closed: Monday except during the holidays on 25 December and 1 January

Adult €8 / Youth €6 / Child €4

Tourist Office special rates
Adult €5.50
Youth & child €4

2h

- A BREATH OF AIR -

THE HARBOUR

The Brest harbour shapes an inland sea through an exceptional natural site. Its dazzling, unspoilt landscape and biodiversity is the main feature of this keystone of our region. Here, you will be able to learn, to practice, to hire equipment, or to board a traditional sailing boat - every nautical activity is possible.

The most beautiful harbour in the world is waiting for you, go aboard the Brestoï! Sailing is the best way to fully appreciate Brest. Boat tours, of 90 min. to 3 hours duration, offer live commentary by the captain.

Harbour shipping company Le Brestoï
Commercial port
Quai de la Douane - Brest
+33(0)2 98 33 04 18
+33(0)7 78 37 03 23
www.lebrestoa.com

July-August:
Open daily
April, May, June and September:
Open: Tuesday to Sunday

Adult rates from €17.

Tourist Office special adult rates from €15.

Line 5 to Les îles stop

Loch Monna, Notre-Dame de Rumengol, La Recouvrance ... The Escales Estivales offer you to board on these historical ships to discover the harbor and all its splendor through a new sailing experience for a day outing (3 hours) or a sunset outing (2 hours).

Les Escales Estivales
Information and booking:
www.fetesmaritimesdebrest.fr
+33(0)2 98 33 59 00

Daily from 9 July to 27 August

Adult : €35 (3h) / €25 (2h)
Youth : €25 (3h) / €18 (2h)
Child : €10 (3h) / €7.50 (2h)

Line 5 to Les îles stop

Like a Brestoï

The Château Marina: A must-see for food lovers! Sunny terrace in the daytime, lively terrace in the evening! Vinciane (40 years old) loves sharing a convivial lunch break here with friends.

The Plougastel-Daoulas peninsula

Cross the Albert Louppe bridge, with its amazing view of the harbor, and here you are in Plougastel-Daoulas. The peninsula offers you a real Breton escapade. Here, between the green hills, the small typical harbors worthy of postcards, uncrowded wild shores and the majestic calvary ... you are definitely in Brittany! .

